OH CAROL!

SIS- BOOM BABE!

CARL ANDREWS WAS ON THE ROAD TO COLLEGE STARDOM WHEN DISASTER STRUCK.

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

When sixteen-year-old Carl Andrews broke his back, he realized that his days of playing football for his high school were over. What the young athlete did not realize, however, was that he would soon be back on the field as a cheerleader!

“Carl was a first string quarterback,” related Hampden High School football coach, Dick Waterman. “He had a full scholarship to state, the girls loved him, his future was rosy. Then, after that game against Union West, it all came to an end.”

A freak gridiron accident left Andrews with a broken spine and the prospect of spending eight months in traction.

“Poor Carl was devastated,” says his girlfriend, Peggy LaMaur, currently a senior at Andrews’ school. “When the doctors told him that he could risk permanent paralysis if he ever played again well, I honestly think he felt his life was over. I’d visit him in the hospital every day, and he’d just lie there, staring at the ceiling. He wouldn’t eat, he went from 190lbs. to about 100 in a few months. The doctors started discussing placing him in a psychiatric facility, his depression was that bad. Football was his life, you see. Once that was taken away from him, he felt he had lost everything. I knew I had to do something.”

“I was a mess, I admit it,” says Andrews, now eighteen. “I won’t even deny that I thought of suicide at

WHEN CARL RETURNED TO HAMPDEN HIGH AFTER HIS EIGHT MONTHS IN TRACTION, HE DISCOVERED THAT HE'D LOST MORE THAN A BARREL CHEST AND RIPPLING MUSCLES. HIS STATUS AS A SENIOR CLASS HOTTIE WAS OVER TOO. THE ONLY LOOKS HE GOT FROM GIRLS ANYMORE WERE ONES OF PITY.

CARL EARNED MUCH GOOD WILL FROM HIS GLORY DAYS ON THE GRIDIRON, SO FEW AT HAMPDEN HIGH WERE SURPRISED HOW EASILY HE WAS ACCEPTED AS CAROL BY HIS FELLOW STUDENTS.

"IT FEELS SO GOOD TO BE OUT THERE AND ACTIVE," CARL TOLD REPORTERS AFTER HIS FIRST GAME ON THE CHEERLEADING SQUAD.

times. I guess that's when Peggy told me her crazy plan, I was willing to listen."

Peggy's crazy plan was to have Carl join her on the cheerleading squad. "It wasn't as far-out as you might think," says Peggy. "There were already two boys on the squad. I thought if Carl couldn't play football, he could at least be part of the game. The problem was that the male cheerleaders had to do a lot of physical feats: throwing the girls up in the air, carrying them on their shoulders, flips, that sort of thing. It was about as stressful as playing the actual game."

"But Peggy wasn't about to let me off that easily," continues Andrews. "She told me since I couldn't be a male cheerleader, maybe I could be a pom-pom girl, like her. She even brought her uniform by for me to try on. I knew that I had lost so much weight that I could fit into it, but I refused."

But the combination of Peggy's insistence and Carl's desire to be on the field once more proved too much. Soon Carl was wearing Peggy's cheerleader's shirt and skirt.

"I was surprised how well he turned out. With a little padding and a new haircut, you honestly couldn't tell!"

Carl was released from the hospital shortly after chucking his jock strap for pom-poms. Peggy wasted no time in inviting Andrews to participate in the bi-weekly cheerleading practice.

“I was real nervous at first, I thought the whole squad would laugh at me. But Peggy had told girls why I was doing this, and they were all real supportive. By the end of practice that day, I honestly felt like one of the team. I actually was excited about attending next week’s practice.”

By the time Andrews returned to school, he had earned a berth on the cheerleading squad. “Carl was sensational,” gushes Peggy. “He was timid at first, but by the halftime show he was ‘rah rahing’ and dancing with the rest of us. He was a great football player, but he’s an outstanding pommer.”

It wasn’t long before Carl’s classmates realized who

IT WAS A SHOCK FOR THE FORMER BMOC TO BE ABLE TO PASS ANONYMOUSLY THROUGH THE HALLS OF HAMPDEN HIGH, BUT CARL ATTRACTED A DIFFERENT KIND OF ATTENTION ONCE HE MADE THE TRANSITION TO A FEMININE WARDROBE.

CARL’S MOTHER WAS ONE OF THE FIRST TO URGE HIM TO DRESS FULL-TIME AS A GIRL. “I SUGGESTED IT FOR PRACTICAL REASONS. CARL LOST A TON OF WEIGHT DURING HIS RECOVERY. WITH ALL THOSE HOSPITAL BILLS, I COULDN’T AFFORD TO BUY HIM TWO SETS OF CLOTHES!”

the new brunette cheerleader was. “At first I was pretty shocked,” says Tim Portman, one of Andrews’ former teammates. “I mean, I know he was upset, but this was kind of extreme. Still, it was great to have him back on the field. He really seems to enjoy what he was doing out there, and that’s what counts.”

Carl’s mother couldn’t agree more. “When Carl told me what he and Peggy were planning, naturally I was concerned. But he looked so lovely out there, I honestly couldn’t tell him no when he asked me to sign the cheerleading permission form.”

Carl, who now goes by ‘Carol,’ has lost all signs of his former depression. “At first I felt like a freak, but after a few games, I just realized I was a young person doing what I enjoy. I’m helping out the team, getting plenty of exercise, and spending a lot more time with Peggy.”

Of course it hasn’t been totally easy for Andrews to go from jock to cheerleader. “I’ve had him on a real strict diet,” says Peggy. “He’s also had to have a bit of electrolysis to keep his beard from developing. We’re both going to be on the squad at State next year, I expect him to look the part.”

How does ‘Carol’ feel about the future? “Excited and nervous. I hear the uniforms there are really skimpy. Peggy promised to get me a boob job for my birthday, maybe that will help me fit in.” ■

TAINTED BEEF TURNS FLABBY FRESHMAN INTO CO-ED CUTIE!

LAWRENCE, KANSAS

College student Shane McDwire never thought his constant diet of fast food would make him better looking until a load of tainted meat caused him to develop a body that would be the envy of any sorority girl!

"THE ONLY BURGERS
I EAT THESE DAYS ARE MADE FROM SOY!"

"Everyone warned me eating at Casa Gorda was bad for my appearance," says the 19-year-old Kansas University student. "I weighed nearly 300 pounds. But when you're either in class, studying, or working, it's not easy to find something fast, cheap, and nutritious. That's why I'd eat at the Casa two or three times a day."

"Busy or not, that guy could pack it in," says Casa Gorda clerk Brad Keller, 20. "He'd eat two or three Boca Burgers and then come back for dessert. Sometimes he'd undo his pants right there at the table. It was so gross."

McDwire's real troubles began after Christmas break. "I noticed my shirts kept getting tighter and tighter. I thought it was just weight gain, you know, the freshman fifty and all that. But before long I could have sworn I was growing breasts."

The changes didn't stop there. McDwire's normally hairy, pimply skin became softer and smoother. He stopped shaving. His hair became silkier.

Shane's doctors were stumped as to the cause of his feminization. "He exhibited symptoms common to transsexuals taking female hormones," says Dr. Henrick Van Nimmetz, a university physician. "But as he was not taking any medication at the time, we were at a loss to explain his problems."

Doctors recommended exercise and a better diet. "I started to skip the nightly Dungeons and Dragons session," says McDwire. "Instead I started running. By spring break I'd lost over 150 pounds and had never felt better in my life. But it seemed that under all the fat was a young woman!"

By the end of his freshman year, McDwire was forced to wear a bra to hold his C-cup breasts. "It was like my fat relocated to my chest, rear and hips! I hadn't shaved in months, my skin as soft as any woman's, and my genitals well, let's just say they've sort of withered."

They cause of McDwire's change was eventually linked to a shipment of tainted beef that Casa Gorda illegally imported from Ecuador. "Cattle barons in South America often resort to illegal use of chemicals to increase the size of cows," says Amy Linter, of the FDA. "Casa Gorda purchased meat that had been

BEFORE HE STARTED HIS EXERCISE REGIME, SHANE'S BUDDIES TORMENTED HIM ABOUT HAVING "MAN-BREASTS." SHANE WAS CONFIDENT THEY WOULD GET SMALLER AS THE POUNDS MELTED AWAY, BUT HE SOON REALIZED THE OPPOSITE WAS HAPPENING.

DOCTORS OFFERED NUMEROUS THEORIES, BUT THEY COULD NOT EXPLAIN WHY SHANE'S BREASTS, AS WELL AS OTHER SECONDARY FEMALE SEXUAL CHARACTERISTICS, CONTINUED TO DEVELOP.

BY THE TIME TAINTED FAST FOOD WAS DISCOVERED AS THE SOURCE OF HIS PROBLEMS, SHANE HAD LEARNED TO EMBRACE HIS OUTWARDLY FEMININE APPEARANCE.

"SOME PEOPLE THINK I SHOULD BE ANGRY ABOUT WHAT HAPPENED, BUT I'VE GOT NO COMPLAINTS. I'M HAPPY, HEALTHY, AND I ALWAYS HAVE A DATE FOR SATURDAY NIGHT!"

injected with female hormones, in an attempt to increase pregnancy in cattle."

"No one else had these effects," says Shane, now a petite brunette, whose slender figure, tomboyish haircut, and pixie face are as pretty as any you'd see on a college campus. "Then again, I guess I ate a lot more than everyone else." McDwire bends over to show off his noticeable cleavage. "Talk about supersize me!"

McDwire is now suing the burger company for an undisclosed sum. In the meantime, Shane must now figure out how to cope with his new identity.

"Everyone who meets me thinks I'm a girl. I no longer shop at the big and tall store, but at Victoria's Secret! I've gone from stretch pants and t-shirts to halter tops and skirts."

Realizing it would be impossible to continue his education as Shane, McDwire transferred to the University of Missouri, where he registered as 'Shana.'

"My doctors have advised me to continue to take estrogen; they were afraid suddenly stopping would be too much of a shock to my system. Now I'm stuck as a woman. The sororities here keep asking me to pledge, my old friends ask me out, and my sister wants me to be a bridesmaid! The other day I caught myself buying Cosmo instead of Playboy."

While Casa Gorda has no comment on the ensuing litigation, several competing restaurants have asked Shana to work as a spokesmodel. "It's kind of ridiculous, me posing in a bikini like that, but the advertisers swear it will work. With all the money I'm making, maybe I can afford to eat somewhere decent!" ■

WITH SO MANY PEOPLE WATCHING HER GIRLISH FIGURE, SHANA IS EXTREMELY CAREFUL ABOUT WHAT SHE EATS, BUT SHE CERTAINLY HASN'T LOST HER TASTE FOR CHEESECAKE!

YOU GO... BOY?

MADISON JAMES is a MAN, baby!

HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA

With two golden records, a movie in the works, and a body that's the desire of every red-blooded man, you'd think Madison James would be America's sweetheart. Well get ready for a change of tune... Madison is a man!

This newspaper has learned that the singer of such hit songs as 'I Could Never Be Your Girl,' and 'Metamorphosis' was once John Madison, a twenty-year-old guitarist from Hoboken! Crazy as it sounds, the curvaceous blonde is no more a woman than her boyfriend, Hollywood leading man Chet Stevens.

"I met John two years ago, when he auditioned for 'USA Idol,'" says talent scout Michael Morpheus. "Quite frankly, he didn't have what it takes. From his scrawny frame to his soprano voice, I'd never seen anyone more pathetic. Finally I told him he'd either have to learn how to fill out a little black dress or forget making it in show biz. I never thought he'd take me so literally!"

"I ALWAYS WONDERED WHY SHE FELT THE NEED TO FLAUNT HER SEXUALITY IN ALL THOSE RACY VIDEOS," SAID ACCLAIMED MAGAZINE WRITER ANDY DUNNE, WHO INTERVIEWED MADISON LAST YEAR FOR 'PEOPLE' MAGAZINE. "NOW I FINALLY UNDERSTAND. SHE WANTED TO LEAVE NO DOUBT ABOUT THE FACT THAT SHE WAS A BEAUTIFUL GIRL!"

IS THIS THE REAL FACE OF "AMERICA'S SEXIEST WOMAN?"

So how did John go from a 98 pound weakling to being voted 'Sexist American Woman' by 'People' magazine? According to an anonymous hospital source, John was willing to go the extra mile for success.

"The poor young man was desperate," says his surgeon. "Here was a boy, a totally heterosexual young man, asking me to make him look like Miss October! At first I balked, but after he revealed he'd been taking female hormones for months I realized how serious he was. John went into the OR, but Madison came out."

While John elected to keep his family jewels, everything else male wound up on the operating room floor. A nose job, double D breast implants, and a tummy tuck caused John to go from shrimp to scamp. When music fans drool over Madison's short skirts, halter tops, and trademark leather miniskirts, few know what really lies tucked in her panties.

While the list of Madison's alleged boyfriends ranges from producers to stunt-men, from directors to stars, she's been most recently linked with Chet Stevens, her co-star in the upcoming film 'The Cyborg and the Kitten.'

"It wouldn't surprise me if it was all a studio set-up," says Morpheus. "Attractive Hollywood couples are a gold mine. They're just play acting. Then again, they certainly seemed friendly after the Oscars last month. Perhaps Chet has a secret too!"

A spokesman for Madison dismissed the allegations offhand. "Do you honestly think a woman who co-hosted the 'Miss Teen USA' pageant is a man?"

When asked why Madison's contracts always stipulate a private bathroom, but never include the standard 'no pregnancy' clause, the spokesman had no comment. ■

STEROIDS TURN MACHO WRESTLER INTO SLINKY SISSY!

"I'M USED TO BEING ADMIRED FOR MY PHYSIQUE, BUT NOBODY LOOKS AT MY MUSCLES ANYMORE! I CONSTANTLY HAVE TO REMIND GUYS TO LOOK ME IN THE EYES!"

ALBANY, NEW YORK

The varsity football players gape in awe as Kelly Schroeder parades across the gym floor, clad only in an athletic bra, gym shorts, and a New York Yankees hat. At first, you'd think the boys were drooling over Schroeder's shapely legs, flat stomach, and DD chest. In reality, what most of these teenagers are feeling is shock: Kelly Schroeder is a man!

"Two years ago, I was just like you," says Schroeder, 20, in a husky, almost-but not-quite-masculine voice "I was a linebacker for the football team, not a bad weight-lifter, and a champion wrestler." A slide appears on a screen at the back of the gym, an image of a muscular young man, with wavy red hair, five o'clock shadow, and rippling muscles. "Now look at me," says the redhead, gesturing to his curvy, sensual frame.

"I KNEW THERE COULD BE SIDE-EFFECTS FROM TAKING STEROIDS, BUT I WAS WILLING TO TAKE THE RISK, TO SACRIFICE ANYTHING. IN ORDER TO WIN A NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP. I JUST NEVER DREAMED THAT THE COST WOULD BE MY MANHOOD!"

"ALL THE MODELING I DO IS FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY! SURE, SOME OF THE SHOTS ARE PRETTY SEXY, BUT I JUST DO WHAT THEY TELL ME. IT'S NOT LIKE I ENJOY IT!"

"DURING MY TALKS WITH TEENS, THERE ARE ALWAYS A FEW BOYS WHO REFUSE TO BELIEVE THAT THE HAIRY DUDE IN THE WRESTLING OUTFIT IS ME!"

"I look like I belong on the cheerleading squad! And I'm here to tell you, it could happen to any of you!"

How did this man go from husky teen hunk to slender sissy? "Steroids. Steroids did this to me. I had a chance to go to the nationals in the wrestling competition I thought 'roids would give me an extra edge."

While Kelly's chemical experimentation did give him an advantage, the price he paid was high. "Two weeks before the competition I felt a strange lump in my groin. It was a cancerous growth. While my friends headed off to the championship, I was right here in New York, having my testicles removed."

The spectators wince and cover themselves at this admission. "It gets worse," Kelly chastises them. "Without my two 'friends,' I could no longer produce testosterone. My body's chemistry was thrown off. In less than a year, my chest went from what you see on the screen there, to this!"

The next slide shows Schroeder decked out in a string bikini, with a figure that would be the envy of any young woman. "You may ask yourself how I fit into those tiny panties. Let's just say after I lost my nuts, something else just kind of withered up. I lost all my muscle tone.

"IT'S TRUE THAT I DATE GUYS NOW. BUT WHAT AM I SUPPOSED TO DO? THEY'RE THE ONLY ONES WHO'LL GO OUT WITH ME! I KNOW THEY'RE ONLY INTERESTED IN ME FOR ONE REASON, WELL, MAKE THAT TWO REASONS, BUT IT'S OKAY."

"MY SISTER AND I NEVER USED TO BE CLOSE, BUT SHE'S BEEN SO SUPPORTIVE ABOUT MY TRANSFORMATION. I COULDN'T SAY NO WHEN SHE ASKED ME TO BE HER MAID OF HONOR!"

"WHAT DO I MISS THE MOST ABOUT MY OLD LIFE? SLEEPING ON MY STOMACH!"

The only shaving I do is my legs. And here's how I looked at my sister's wedding last year."

The new slide shows Kelly in a pretty dress standing next to the bride. Kelly is the maid of honor.

After Kelly's speech, he answers a few questions. "I do this because I'd hate to see anyone ruin their life like I did. My dreams are dead. I'm banned from sports. My girlfriend left me. The only people who ask me on dates are guys."

"Mr. Schroeder's results are rather extreme, but are more or less the effects of steroids, especially among younger men," says Dr. Larry Dobbs, a health education specialist. "Increased risk of cancer, feminization, breast development, loss of facial and body hair, and loss of muscle. He also had terrible acne before he discontinued use of the drugs."

Though Kelly's life has radically changed, he holds out high hopes for the future. "It seems high schools can't book me fast enough. Apparently seeing me model lingerie is a lot more effective than all the anti-steroid pamphlets they can print. I'm doing a little modeling for a new sportswear company, and Sports Illustrated wants me to do a shot for the swimsuit issue. Playboy even contacted me for a spread."

When asked what they thought about Schroeder's presentation, the team was of one opinion. "I'm sure as hell not touching that stuff," says junior Carl Nathaniel, 17. "Competition's hard enough without having to worry about breaking a nail!" ■

"AS A BOY, I DREAMED ABOUT MAKING THE COVER OF 'MUSCLE MEDIA.' ALL I CAN SAY IS, BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WISH FOR!"
